Dear «HouseholdMembers»,

Homes Victoria is writing to share some important news about your home and the next stage of the Big Housing Build.

In September 2023, the Victorian Government announced a major redevelopment program to redevelop 44 older high-rise buildings with modern, accessible, and energy-efficient homes. This is part of our commitment to providing more and better homes for Victorians.

Today, we are informing renters in 139 Highett Street, Richmond and 259 Malvern Road, South Yarra that their relocation process will begin soon with relocations due to be complete by February 2026. This will enable the redevelopment of these high-rise buildings to build more and better homes.

The new buildings under construction near 147 - 161 Elizabeth Street, Richmond will deliver well designed, safe, secure and modern social housing. This may be one of your relocation options.

What this means for you

Conversations to plan your relocation will start soon, so your move can happen by February 2026.

We understand this is big news, and our dedicated local housing staff and relocations team are here to support you every step of the way.

Right now, you can now register for an in-person 1:1 appointment to talk about the next steps and how we can best support you, as well as learn more about the redevelopment program by visiting bighousingbuild.homes.vic.gov.au or calling 1800 716 866.

You can also talk to your local housing office, come to an information session, or drop by the on-site relocation hub when it opens near you, soon.

We want to reassure you that we're committed to making your move as smooth as possible. Here's what you can expect:

Coming back: The redevelopment will take between 6 and 8 years. You have the right to return to your current neighbourhood when the redevelopment is complete based on your ongoing eligibility, needs and suitability of the new homes. You can also choose to stay in your new home if that suits you better, at the time.

We are here to support you
